LEARNING AND ASSESSMENT

We've developed our approach to ensure that Cass online learners never feel isolated. You're as much a part of Cass as you would be if you were on campus, and we support you every step of the way.

- Each module is broken down into convenient weekly topics
- Each topic features video lectures made exclusively for this course, online readings and materials, class discussions, activities where you test and apply your new knowledge and webinars where you can ask questions and get feedback on your work
- All modules are taught by Cass faculty
- Interact and learn with other online students around the world
- Each module is assessed by coursework which you receive and submit online – no need to travel for exams
- Our bespoke online interface is intuitive and easy to use
- A dedicated Course Officer is on hand to help you with practical support
- Core readings and further resources are available through our online library portal
- Use our campus facilities when you are in London.

“At Cass Business School we know your education is personal. That’s why we developed an online degree – to be flexible, to meet your busy schedule. Like every degree at Cass the MSc in Global Finance is developed and taught by world class academics.”

Professor Marianne Lewis,
Dean, Cass Business School

“I am very satisfied with the MSc. The online classes, quizzes and assignments have all been well designed, and the learning environment is really easy to use. I am so glad I’ve chosen this programme rather than a more traditional, campus based, Masters.”

ROUTES TO BUSINESS SUCCESS

The world of international finance, with its many career opportunities and continuous demand for sharper, brighter and more adaptable employees, is an attractive choice for many top-calibre candidates with numerical skills.

The Cass MSc in Global Finance has the potential to open up global career opportunities for you in a rapidly changing and ever more complex business environment, equipping you with a combination of high-level interpersonal skills, in-depth knowledge and analytical skills.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The course is designed so that you can manage the workload alongside your professional and domestic commitments.

- Complete within 24 months
- 12 modules. You study one module at a time and each module runs for a manageable seven weeks
- Start when most convenient for you, with intakes in January, May and September
- Study with breaks between every other module, with free time during the summer and at the end of the calendar year
- The modules are designed to give you in-depth knowledge of the key areas of global finance today.

MODULES FOR 2017/18

The first two modules give you a grounding of knowledge. This is built on over the following six modules, and the final four modules then give you specialist knowledge of various key industries within the financial sector.

- Foundations of finance
- Bond & equity analysis
- Investment strategy
- Finance statement analysis
- International finance
- Derivatives & risk management
- Alternative investments
- Corporate finance
- International banking
- Asset management
- The insurance industry
- Global real estate.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- An undergraduate degree in a relevant subject area equivalent to a UK 2.1 or higher
- Strong communication skills including a well-balanced IELTS score of 7.0 with no less than 6.5 in writing for applicants whose first language is not English
- Good levels of financial literacy and numeracy are essential. In addition, knowledge of the finance industry would be beneficial.

There is no GMAT requirement for this course.
